Report of Board of Trustees.

PORTLAND, ME., April 2, 1903.

TO THE MEMBERS OF THE BIBLE SOCIETY OF MAINE:

Dear Brethren:—In giving you the report of the past year's work of this Society, based upon the one given by our Superintendent, to the Trustees, I call your thoughtful attention to important facts, the great needs of, and our solemn duty in relation to, this Bible Society whose work is one of vital importance to the moral and spiritual welfare of this our beloved State.

The workers for the year have been Mr. Z. M. Vaughn, Mr J. L. Corson and Miss Ida L. Fuller, of the old force, with Mr. O. C. Farnham who was enlisted last May. Two others also have assisted temporarily. This band of four men and one woman have acted during the year as agents, canvassers and missionaries, for they seem to occupy all these positions. They are persons of sterling Christian character, selected for their special interest in, and fitness for, the work. By their conscientious labors they have gained the confidence of your Trustees and Superintendent, and deserve also the confidence of the Society.

The force has been smaller by one than the year before. This seemed imperative because of a deficit reported last year and the year before, and of the determination of the Trustees that it should not be repeated this year. As a consequence of this smaller force, the territory covered has been considerably less than usual and less than at first laid out for the year. One hundred small towns were open to us by reason of the rule to visit each town every seven or eight years. Of these but sixty-three were canvassed, together with twenty-one plantations of from six to sixty families. This smaller force accounts in part for the smaller number of families reached (some 15,000 against nearly 22,000 the year before). But this was in part also due to the scattered population of most of the towns canvassed. Some were so sparsely settled as often to require many miles of travel to reach but one or two families. And besides this the length of time required to make a call where there is destitution and need, and where no other form of mission work is done, is much greater than in more favored localities.

Instances of remarkable interest are reported where men and women were found hungry for help, where no pastor or Christian person could be found resident in the neighborhood to give comfort, counsel or cheer. In some of these towns were found grown-up children who had never attended any religious meeting. The benefit received from the visit of an earnest Christian man or woman in such families, besides the supply of Bibles to the non-church-going, can never be adequately estimated.

These then are the statistics for the year: Families visited during the year, 14,916. In 9 counties, 63 towns, 21 plantations: Number of families attending no church, 7,232; number of families having no religious preference, 3,000; number of children in no Sunday School, 5,344; number of families (other than Rom. Cath.) destitute, and supplied with Bibles, 404; number of days work done in all, 907½; number of miles traveled, nearly 8,000; number volumes sold by the missionaries (Bibles in whole or in part), 2,432; number of volumes sold at the Depository, about 1,000; number of volumes donated by missionaries and by order of Trustees, $53; making the whole number distributed in the year, 4,285; the total value of the same, $1,854.09.

I call attention to two items in the above statistics: 14,916 families visited the past year against nearly 22,000 the year before. Yet remember we have been fertilizing the more sterile, because the more sparsely populated parts of our State. The sale of Bibles has also been small in comparison with some years, 2,432 only, sold by the missionaries in the field against 4,512, the year before. But here we must remember the homes reached have been largely those of the poor, and such as need the Bible and will make good use of it.

True, there has been a small surplus of receipts in the year, above expenditures. But mark the next sad statement. This was due to cutting down the work of the year one-third. What does this mean? It means a less number of missionaries have been employed; a less number of calls have been made; a less number of people supplied with the Bible; a less number of persons reached for their spiritual good. Withal a splendid work has been done with the means used. These are the facts. What now are the needs? A deeper interest in the hearts of all Christians in our State, whose watchword shall be, "The Bible for Maine."

Our Superintendent has been stimulating our churches to greater benevolence for this Society, and raised $356.24 above last year, but the falling off of collections by missionaries, on account of the poorer districts canvassed and their gifts coming mostly in dimes and nickels, more than offset this. We have the men and women ready to do the work, we have the books, the precious Bible, ready for distribution. But we need money. Shall we boast of our financial and commercial prosperity and let this Society be retarded in its work for want of funds? No!

We need at least $1,000.00 more for this work and it ought to be easy to raise it. Let every member of this Society do what he can. Let each church in the State be stimulated to systematic contributions for the Bible in Maine, and we can put this greatest Missionary Society in Maine in a condition to perform the greatest possible good for the inhabitants of our State, for the salvation of souls, and the glory of God. Let us note these facts, consider the needs, and do our duty. And God will grant an increase of moral and spiritual power in our State.

Respectfully submitted,

LEWIS MALVERN,

For, and in behalf of, the Trustees of the Bible Society of Maine.

REV. ALBERT TEAL DUNN, D. D.

Rev. Albert Teal Dunn, D. D.

REV. ALBERT TEAL DUNN, D. D., died in Waterville, April 2, 1903. The annual meeting of the Society occurring on the same day, Rev. J. C. Perkins introduced the following resolve which was unanimously adopted and put on record:

Even in the midst of the deepest pain and grief, before the loss of such a man to his family and friends, we are yet in our hearts most deeply conscious of sincere thanksgiving before the divine mercy and the gracious love of our Heavenly Father for the gift of His life herein revealed to us.

We have been made to realize the blessed intimacy of fellowship. We have known the joy of precious associations. We have come face to face with splendid manhood. We have been inspired and helped by a fine courage and hope, and a spiritual consecration.

For seventeen years as Trustee, and the last nine as President, these powers have been poured out richly for the welfare of the Maine Bible Society. As president and trustee, the Christian strength of his spirit has found expression in constant and efficient service; faithful and devoted zeal; watchful and wise foresight; careful and vigilant guidance.

Made keenly aware in this hour of death of the genuine and true companionship and leadership that our friend Reverend Albert Teal Dunn, Doctor of Divinity, has shared with us so generously.

We therefore are resolved to place on our records this testimony of our loving and respectful gratitude to him; and to communicate the same to his family and friends.

Anniversary.

The ninety-third anniversary of the Society was held in Lewiston, at the Pine Street Congregational Church, on Sunday evening, April 19th. The churches in the city generally united in the service, filling the audience room of the church.

Hon. Percival Bonney, the newly elected president of the Society, presided.

After the organ voluntary an anthem was sung by the choir of the church.

The invocation and reading of Scripture were by Rev. J. E. Wilson of the Pine Street Free Baptist Church.

Prayer was offered by Rev. N. M. Simmons of the Baptist Church, and it was followed by a Response by the choir.

President Bonney then gave an address stating briefly the origin and aim of the Society, and giving a very interesting account of the life and varied activities of Hon. Samuel Freeman, who was practically the founder of the Society and promoter of very many other benevolent and philanthropic organizations. He then spoke very fittingly and feelingly of Rev. Albert T. Dunn, D. D., its last president, so recently deceased.

The Report of the Trustees, written by Rev. Lewis Malvern, Portland, was then read by Prof. A. W. Anthony.

After singing the hymn, "O Word of God Incarnate", the address of the evening was delivered by Rev. Smith Baker, D. D., pastor of Williston Congregational Church, Portland.

His theme was "The Bible, the Book of books"; it is prominent among books because of the truth it reveals and the person it represents. "Not only is it more than any other book, but it is different from any other book, and the only inspired book of authority in the world."

The speaker, after telling how the Book has lived and stood all the tests of the centuries, gave an interesting account of its increased circulation in the last few years, and closed with mention of the fact that the Bible has imbedded itself in the life and literature of our age; that it could not be destroyed without destroying with it everything that is distinctive to our civilization, and all that is tender or ennobling in human life.

A generous collection was taken up for the work of the Society, and the Benediction was pronounced by Rev. Percival Marston, pastor of the Pine Street Church.

It was an inspiring and helpful meeting.

Contributors of $10 each toward Life Membership.

Cooleridge, Mrs. Jane Frye, Fryeburg.

Dodge, Ruel A., Bridgton.

NOTE.—Life Members in full who desire it, may draw one dollar's worth of Bibles each year, by making application to the Treasurer before the year ends. Such drafts are supposed to be for benevolent use, since the amount thus drawn out is more than the interest of the sum contributed.

NOTE.—There is always a possibility that names will be omitted or spelled wrongly. The Superintendent would therefore regard it a personal favor if any one who discovers mistakes of any kind would drop him a postal card, and set him right, so that the error can be corrected in the next report.

Form of Bequeathing Money.

I give and bequeath to the Bible Society of Maine, organized in Portland in eighteen hundred and nine, the sum of..... dollars, to be paid to the Treasurer of said Society within..... months after my decease, and his receipt shall be a sufficient discharge of my executor for the same.

In case it is desired to give real estate, the following form can be used:—

I direct my executors to sell (here describe the real estate), and I give and bequeath to the Bible Society of Maine, formed in Portland in the year eighteen hundred and nine, out of the proceeds thereof, the sum of.....dollars, to be applied to the charitable uses and purposes of said Society.

If the money is designated to constitute a permanent fund it should be so stated.

The Bible Society of Maine, though Auxiliary to the American Bible Society, receives no aid from it, and contributes to its treasury only after the wants of this State are supplied.
